

MSHCSP and Endoscopy Repair Specialist Present

Members Only Workshop

Inside the Endoscope: Hands-On Anatomy, Inspection, and Repair Tour

At ERS Home Office

10125 S M43 Hwy
Delton, MI 49046

Saturday, April 11, 2026
8:30am - 12:15 pm

Agenda

8:30 am to 9:00 am – Registration
9 am – 10:30 am – Understanding Endoscope design, components and inspection

Objectives

Understand potential impact to patients if damage is not identified prior to use.
Critical inspection points recommended per IFUs and AAMI ST-91.
Identify critical components of endoscopes.

10:45am – 12:15 pm – Hands on
Inspection of various endoscopes

Objectives

Perform leak testing per IFU and industry best practices
Identify damage that could put patients at risk.
Proper use of recommended inspection tools.

**3 CEU's awarded after completion of this program (HSPA, CBSPD)

Register for this program at the section for members only on our homepage

www.mshcsp.org

Limited to 25 seats, so register quickly to reserve your seat

Coffee, tea, and continental breakfast will be provided with a snack at break time.

This 3-hour workshop combines an interactive lecture with a deep-dive, hands-on experience where attendees will work directly with scopes and tour a professional endoscope repair facility. Participants will gain a comprehensive understanding of scope anatomy and clinical use while mastering precision inspection and cleaning techniques vital to patient safety.

Questions email: info@mshcsp.org